OUR STATE POLITICS. A meeting of the Democratic State executive committee has been called for next Thursday. The immediate im-portance of this meeting is the ealling of a State convention to appoint dele gates to the National Democratic conh the mouth of June. This much will be necessary. What further the com-mittee caght to do is a matter worthy of regious consideration. Whether a call for a State convention, which must erlly meet as early me bluy, should symbrace the organization for the Shate campaign, may well be questioned. In these, we are fully personned from sound politic considerations, that our Demo-eratic canvess in Tennesses should not be shoped at so early a day. * * * Our tuencial elections take place in August. This is the year, also, for the regular of clien of justices of the peace. The pending of a State political canvass, concurrent with the local elections, exp not fail to operate desistrously to our party. Nature seamed to be propitious to an occasion so full of sweet and pitter associations to the sons and daughters of old Erin. The festival, viewed by all Irishmen as a national and religious fete, was duly honored as such in his valley. It is always a pleasur, though alloyed with some pain, too, to meet your fellow-countrymen upon a stated national festival, though com-parative strangers. We turn more kindly toward one another; even look back with fountains of love and friendship to the land of our fathers, and the further fate has removed us from her, for this one night at least, we can feel like Irishmer, such as Thomas
